

AUTHOR: International Community of Women Living with HIV/AIDS (ICW)

DATE: 2006

PUBLISHER: International Community of Women Living with HIV/AIDS (ICW)

After a review of existing monitoring and reporting systems used to report on progress against international policy processes, HIV positive women developed their own tool covering the areas of access to care, treatment and support, sexual and reproductive health and rights, and violence against women. Research questions target HIV positive women, service providers, and governments/ministries.

Article can be accessed on-line here .