

AUTHOR: UN Women National Committee Singapore

DATE: 2011

PUBLISHER: UN Women National Committee Singapore

Mony Pen has dedicated her life to helping women living with AIDS in Cambodia, through education and outreach programmes. She is HIV-positive and was infected by her husband two years after she got married. Since she got diagnosed, Mony has made it her personal mission in life to help empower women living with HIV/AIDS.

This video can be accessed on-line here .