UNIFEM joined forces with the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, California, and the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) to produce three public service announcements (PSAs) to prevent violence against women and the spread of HIV/AIDS among young women and men. They were distributed by PAHO to 300 TV and cable stations across Latin America, the Caribbean and the United States. The PSAs are available in English, Spanish and Portuguese and are reproduced here in Windows Media Video format.
