This resource pack includes a list of free resources culled from organizations working on gender and HIV/AIDS as well as selected relevant books available for purchase. The resources and tools in this directory address the complexity of women's vulnerability to HIV infection, including the need for a gender-based approach to HIV/AIDS; to protect the rights of young women and girls; to promote a gender-based approach to prevention and care; to guarantee sexual and reproductive health rights; to support empowerment and leadership for women living with HIV/AIDS; and to eliminate violence against women; and to ensure women's economic rights.
