

AUTHOR: R. Schleifer
DATE: March 2004
PUBLISHER: Human Rights Watch

This report provides an assessment of the role of gender based violence in HIV transmission and the current prevalence of the HIV/AIDS epidemic in South Africa. It explains how the use of PEP can help prevent HIV infection and describes the policy the government has adopted to provide access to PEP and ARVs for all survivors of sexual violence. However, the government has not been fully implemented these initiatives, and this report provides recommendations for its success.

Article can be accessed on-line here in PDF format.

To view PDF documents you will need to download and install Adobe Acrobat Reader. The program is available for free through the Adobe website, download here . More help is available on PDF documents and Adobe Acrobat Reader here