

"WOMEN think that when you're married, you don't have to worry about HIV. They think it is a safe haven,"said Beauty Nyamwanza of the National Aids Council. But marriage can actually fuel the risk of HIV among women, particularly the young. Read full article here .