

A new documentary film following the lives of four people in Africa aims at challenging patriarchy, end men's violence against women and promote gender equality. Produced by Sonke Gender Justice and MenEngage, the film titled A Way to Justice: Engaging Men for Women's Rights and Gender Transformation focuses on gender, HIV and human rights issues. Read full article here .