

The HIV and AIDS Prevention and Control Bill, which criminalizes the transmission of HIV and AIDS in cases where a person is aware that they are HIV positive, was tabled in Uganda's Parliament in 2010. The Bill has a number of adverse human and women's rights implications. Read full article here .