

A family planning expert in the Ministry of Health, Dr. Thomas Nsengiyumva, has said that a study indicating that a contraceptive used in Africa may double HIV risk is misleading. Read full article here.