

The African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR) has condemned the coerced sterilization of women living with HIV as a blatant violation of their fundamental rights, which are guaranteed under the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights. Read full article here