

New initiative -- Global Coalition on Women and AIDS -- being launched Monday

Over 20 eminent women and men have united to create The Global Coalition on Women and AIDS. The Coalition aims to stimulate action on a number of fronts, including violence against women, HIV prevention for girls, and greater access to HIV care and treatment. UNAIDS Executive Director Dr Peter Piot will be joined by prominent activists in launching the initiative in London on Monday, 2 February at 12:00 GMT. Read more...
