

India to scale up HIV/AIDS care and support facilities

India has promised to scale up care and support facilities, establish linkages with reproductive and primary health and involve young people in the fight against discrimination against people suffering from HIV/AIDS, as a direct outcome of the International AIDS Conference, organized from July 11- 16, 2004 at Bangkok. Read more...