

EU Urged to 'Refocus' Gender Efforts

"I would like to see the EU setting the international example in the fight for gender equality," Glenys Kinnock, British Socialist member of the European Parliament (MEP) told delegates at the 'Owning Development: Promoting Gender Equality in New Modalities and Partnerships' conference here Wednesday (Nov. 9). "We must acknowledge that we are failing to embrace gender equality and in some parts of the world, gender inequality and AIDS is a preordained equation of death," she said. Read more...
