

Govt Watchdog Criticises US global AIDS Plan

The priority given to abstinence-only strategies in U.S. Pres. George W. Bush's global HIV/AIDS programme may be undermining the overall effectiveness of his administration's multi-billion-dollar AIDS-prevention efforts, according to a study released here Tuesday by Congress' Governmental Accountability Office (GAO). Read more...