

Nine Out of 10 HIV Carriers Are Men in Korea

Nine out of 10 people in Korea infected with HIV are men, and the government's prevention measures for sexually-transmitted diseases are not enough to tackle the problem, according to a lawmaker at the National Assembly. Read more...