

New Evidence-based Report on Gender Inequity, Stigma and Discrimination

A landmark study released today by Physicians for Human Rights (PHR) connects widespread discriminatory views against women in Botswana and Swaziland to sexual risk-taking and, in turn, to extremely high HIV prevalence. Read more...