

World AIDS Day Message - UNIFEM

The theme of this year's World AIDS Day is leadership. We recognize that leadership occurs at many levels. While leadership and unswerving commitment of national and global policy makers to stem the insidious HIV pandemic is essential, we also need to ensure that leadership from communities of those most affected is valued and promoted. Read more...