

Dr Osotimehin, Executive Director of UNFPA, addressed a side event called Putting Girls First during the CPD, which ran from 11-15 April at UN Headquarters in New York. UNFPA's director underlined the need to promote girls' rights and gender equality and to prioritize them within national programmes for health, education, livelihoods and security.

Read full article here.