

The United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) has concluded a two-day training on reducing maternal mortality, HIV/AIDS and gender based violence for traditional birth attendants (TBAs), FGM initiators locally known as Soweis, maternal child health aides, and civil society activists in the Tonkolili district. Read full article here.