

Four awardees were selected among more than 70 nominations by an international review panel. One awardee, Nancy Kapembwa, has become a role model to many women and girls. To date she has reached approximately 2,500 people, many of whom are women and girls survivors of violence and living with HIV. Read full article here .