

Women will continue to be vulnerable to HIV for as long as women leaders sit on their hands. Minister for Women Doctor Jiko Luveni said women in leadership roles must take steps to address the vast inequity and inequality women face. Read full article here .