

"Interventions should challenge the attitudes, values and behaviours' of men that compromise their own health and safety as well as the health and safety of women and children and having men actively involved in HIV and Aids related programmes." A challenge to men by Kelvin Hazangwi, National Director of Padare/ Enkundleni/ Mens Forum. Read full article here .