

At least 50 participants including security personnel, opinion leaders, and youth were sensitised on the effects of gender-based violence and its intersection with HIV/AIDS and reproductive health, by Worldview The Gambia, a consortium on violence against women and girls. Read full article here .